

Constitution

Cambodia Rural Students Foundation Limited

A Company Limited by Guarantee not having Share Capital

Overview

This is the Constitution of Cambodia Rural Students Foundation Limited.

The Company is a company limited by guarantee. The liability of its members is limited to the amount they have agreed to pay in the guarantee. The Company must always have at least one member and three directors.

The Constitution sets out the basis on which the Company is to be managed. Nothing in the Constitution is intended to derogate from the Corporations Act. That Act:

- imposes many obligations on the Company which are not reproduced in this Constitution;
and
- overrules anything in this Constitution to the extent that they are inconsistent.

This Constitution replaces the replaceable rules in the Corporations Act. Words used in the Constitution which have a meaning in the Corporations Act have the same meaning in this Constitution (unless expressly stated otherwise).

- 3.2 all the powers of a body corporate (other than the power to issue shares).

4 However, the Company has those capacities and powers only to the extent:

- 4.1 necessary, or convenient, to carry out the Company's objects; or
- 4.2 incidental to carrying out those objects.

B Members' liability and guarantee

Liability of Members

5 The liability of each Member is limited to the amount of the guarantee set in clause 6.

Guarantee by Members

6 If the Company is wound up while a person is a Member (or within one year after they stop being a Member) then that person must contribute up to $10 to the Company for:

- 6.1 payment of the Company's debts and liabilities incurred before that person ceased to be a Member;
- 6.2 payment of the costs, charges and expenses of winding-up the Company; and
- 6.3 adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves.

C How the Company's income and property are to be applied

For the Company's objects

7 All of the Company's income and property must be applied solely towards the promotion of the Company's objects as set out in clause 2.

No dividends etc. to Members

8 The Company may not pay, or transfer, any of its income or property — directly or indirectly — by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise to any person who is or has been a Member.

Remuneration and expenses for Members allowed

9 Regardless of clause 8, the Company may pay remuneration in good faith to any Member, officer or employee of the Company in return for any good or services they provide to the Company in the ordinary and usual course of business.

10 The Board may authorise the repayment of any expenses a Member incurs for the Company, or in connection with performing their duties for the Company.

Payments to directors: restrictions, remuneration, expenses

11 The Company is prohibited from paying any remuneration to a Director for services rendered in the capacity as a Director.

12 If the Company is to make any other payment to a Director (including but not limited to paying any remuneration to a Director for services rendered in the capacity as an employee of the Company), then the Board must first have resolved to approve that other payment and the terms upon which it is to be made.

13 The Board may authorise the repayment of any expenses a Director incurs for the Company, or in connection with performing their duties for the Company.

Loans and leases from Members

- 14 The Company may pay:
- 14.1 interest on money borrowed from any Member; and
 - 14.2 reasonable and proper rent for premises a Member leases to the Company.
- 15 For the purposes of clause 14, if a Member pays the Company a deposit, bond or other security for the payment of fees and charges levied under the Constitution, then that payment is not a loan from the Member.

D Fees imposed by the Company

Setting fees

- 16 The Board may prescribe:
- 16.1 a cost payable by Members by way of Membership fees and any other fees the Board thinks fit; and
 - 16.2 when and in what circumstances these fees are payable.
- 17 The Board must give Members at least one month's notice of any increase in the fees, or of a change in the due date for fees payable under clause 16.

E Membership

Members

- 18 The Company's Members are as follows (unless the Member has resigned under clause 35 or clause 36, or been expelled under clause 38):
- 18.1 the persons who are specified in the application to register the Company lodged under section 117 of the Act and who have consented to be Members; and
 - 18.2 any other person the Board admits to Membership in accordance with this Constitution.

Register of Members

- 19 The Company must keep and maintain the Register in accordance with the Act and otherwise as the Board determines.
- 20 Any dispute that arises in relation to the Register must be referred to the Board. The Board's decision is final and binding on all Members (in the absence of manifest error).

Eligibility for membership

- 21 The following are eligible to be Members:
- 21.1 any person who has a demonstrated interest in the Company;

- 21.2 any person that the Board considers would benefit the Company by becoming a member; and
- 21.3 any person in a category of persons that the Company has determined to be eligible to be Members.

Types of membership

- 22 At any time, the Board may (subject to the Act) create different types of membership with different rights, obligations and restrictions.

Membership is not transferable

- 23 A Member may not transfer their Membership to another person.

Voting rights

- 24 A Member is entitled to one vote at a General Meeting of the Company.
- 25 However, the Board may suspend a member's entitlement to vote if the Member owes the Company any amount that is more than 3 months overdue (or such other period as the Board determines).

A Member's representative

- 26 If a Member or an Applicant is not a natural person, then it must appoint (in writing) a natural person as its Representative. The Member may remove and replace its Representative by giving written notice to the Board in a form the Board approves.
- 27 The Representative may, on the Member's behalf, exercise all the powers that the Member could exercise at a meeting or in voting on a resolution — unless those powers are restricted in a way set out in clause 28.
- 28 The document appointing the Representative may set out either or both of:
 - 28.1 what the Representative is appointed to do; and
 - 28.2 any restrictions on what the Representative may do.
- 29 If the appointment is made by reference to a position held, then the appointment must identify the position.
- 30 The Company must arrange for:
 - 30.1 the name and address of the Representative to be entered in the Register; and
 - 30.2 all correspondence and notices from the Company to the Member to be served on that Representative.

Applying and being admitted to Membership

- 31 A person's Application to be a Member must be made in the form, and accompanied by any fee, the Board has set.

- 32 The Board will consider and, in its absolute discretion, accept or reject an Application. If the Board rejects an Application, then:
- 32.1 it must arrange for any money the Applicant tendered with the Application to be repaid to the Applicant, without interest; and
- 32.2 the Board does not have to give any reasons for the rejection.
- 33 An Applicant does not become a Member until the Company has:
- 33.1 received any fee that applies; and
- 33.2 the name and address of the Applicant (and its Representative if relevant) are entered in the Register.
- 34 Each Member is liable for all taxes, duty and charges payable in respect of their Application, their Membership and any related transaction or document. Each Member indemnifies the Company and will keep it indemnified in respect of any liability for all those amounts.

Resigning from Membership: and ongoing liability

- 35 A Member may resign from Membership by giving written notice to the Company. When the notice period expires, the Member stops being a Member but:
- 35.1 they remain liable for any money they owe the Company; and
- 35.2 under clause 6, they remain liable for another 12 months.
- 36 A Member also resigns if they owe the Company any amount that is more than 6 months overdue (the Board may change the length of that period). If a Member resigns under this clause, then the Board may reinstate their membership if they pay the outstanding amount.

Expelling and disciplining a Member

- 37 The Board may — in the way described in clause 38 — expel a Member or implement appropriate disciplinary action if the Member:
- 37.1 has committed a breach of any obligation or duty under this Constitution; or
- 37.2 has engaged in conduct detrimental to the interests of the Company.
- 38 For any expulsion or discipline to be valid:
- 38.1 at least 21 days before the Board meeting at which the resolution is considered, the Member must be given written notice of:
- the meeting;
 - the intended resolution; and
 - the particulars of the alleged act, omission or conduct complained of;
- 38.2 at the meeting (and before the resolution is passed), the Member must be given the opportunity to explain themselves in writing or orally (or both if they request it);
- 38.3 if the Member does give an explanation, then the Board must take it into account;
- 38.4 the relevant resolution must be passed by 75% of the Directors present and voting;

- 38.5 the Board must arrange for the Member to be given written notice of any Board resolution on the matter; and
- 38.6 if the Board resolves to expel the Member, then the Member ceases to be a Member when the Board serves them with the notice. Also the Member's name will be removed from the Register as set out in clause 39.

Removing an expelled Member's name from the Register

- 39 If a Member is expelled from the Company, then their name (and that of any Representative they have appointed) must be removed from the Register. The Company has no liability to the Member in respect of their removal from the Register.
- 40 When a Member's name is removed from the Register, the Member no longer has:
- 40.1 any rights or privileges attaching to Membership; or
- 40.2 any rights which they had against the Company that arose out of their Membership.

F General Meetings: frequency and notice

Annual General Meeting

- 41 Except where the Company has one member, the Company must hold an Annual General Meeting:
- 41.1 in every calendar year;
- 41.2 within five months after the end of its financial year; and
- 41.3 at the time and place the Board determines.

Convening Extraordinary Meetings

- 42 An Extraordinary Meeting may be convened:
- 42.1 by the Board at such time and place as the Board thinks fit, (as long as it complies with the Act); and
- 42.2 by Members as allowed under the Act.

For the avoidance of doubt, notice of an Extraordinary Meeting is to be given in accordance with clause 43.

Notice of General Meetings

- 43 The Board must give at least 21 days' written notice of a General Meeting to the Members, the Directors and the Auditor (unless a change to that arrangement is made under clause 45). The notice must specify:
- 43.1 the place, the day and the hour of meeting (and if the meeting is to be held in two or more places, the technology that will be used to facilitate this);
- 43.2 the general nature of the meeting's business;

43.3 the details of any special resolutions to be proposed at the meeting; and

43.4 that Members are entitled to appoint a proxy who must be a Member.

44 A Member that is a company is responsible for notifying its Representative of any General Meeting.

Changing the notice procedure for General Meetings

45 A meeting may be convened in a way other than, and on shorter notice than, clause 43 requires as long as:

45.1 all the Members entitled to vote at the meeting consent to the change beforehand; and 45.2 the notice and the shorter notice period comply with the Act.

Failure to receive Notice

46 A meeting and its proceedings and resolutions are valid even if any one or more of the following is the case:

46.1 the Company accidentally omitted to give notice of a meeting to any Member; or 46.2 any Member did not receive notice of the meeting.

G General Meetings: proceedings

Use of technology in conferencing

47 The Chair may (with the approval of the meeting) confer with Members and others by radio, telephone, facsimile, computer, Internet, closed circuit television or other electronic means of audio or audio-visual communication. Any resolution passed using such a system is to be treated as having been passed at a meeting of the Members held on the day and at the time the conference was held — even if the Members were not present together in one place at the time. This clause does not limit the discretion of the Members to regulate their meetings.

48 The provisions of this Constitution regulating the proceedings of the Members apply so far as they are capable to such conferences.

Business at the meeting

49 The ordinary business of an Annual General Meeting may include:

49.1 considering any annual financial report, directors' report and Auditor's report;

49.2 electing and appointing Directors; and

49.3 appointing the Auditors and fixing the Auditor's remuneration (if the Company is required to have an auditor).

50 All other business at an Annual General Meeting, and all business at an Extraordinary Meeting, is regarded as special business.

Quorum required

- 51 For any business to be transacted at any General Meeting — except the adjournment of the meeting — a quorum must be present. The quorum for a General Meeting is 20% of the Membership, present in person or by Representative, proxy or attorney.

If no Quorum present

- 52 If a quorum is not present within half an hour after the time appointed for a General Meeting then:
- 52.1 if the meeting was convened on the requisition of Members, then it will be dissolved; or
 - 52.2 in any other case, the meeting will be adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place (or at such other place as the Chair decides). If at that adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, then the Members present are a valid quorum.

Chair of the meeting

- 53 The Chair or in the Chair's absence, the Deputy Chair is to preside as chair at every General Meeting.
- 54 If at any General Meeting neither the Chair nor the Deputy Chair is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting (or if neither is willing to preside), then the Members present are to choose a Director to preside. If no Director is present (or if all Directors present decline to preside), then those persons present will choose a Member who is present to preside as Chair.

Adjourning (and resuming) a meeting

- 55 The Chair of a General Meeting:
- 55.1 may, with the consent of the Members present and entitled to vote at any meeting, and at which a quorum is present, adjourn a meeting; and
 - 55.2 must adjourn a meeting if the meeting directs them to do so.
- 56 If the Chair adjourns a General Meeting, then they may do so to another time or place (or both).
- 57 If a General Meeting is adjourned for one month or more, then the Company must arrange for a new notice of the adjourned meeting to be given.
- 58 After an adjourned meeting is resumed, the only business that may be transacted at the meeting is business that was unfinished before the adjournment.

Auditor attending etc. meeting

- 59 The Auditor is entitled:
- 59.1 to attend any General Meeting of the Company;

- 59.2 to receive the same notices of, and other communications relating to, any General Meeting that a Member is entitled to receive; and
- 59.3 to be heard at any General Meeting which the Auditor attends on any part of the business of the meeting which concerns the Auditor in that capacity. The Auditor's right to be heard exists even if the Auditor retires at that meeting or if a resolution to remove the Auditor from office is passed at that meeting.

H General Meetings: voting

Show of hands vote

- 60 Every item of business submitted to a General Meeting is to be decided in the first instance by a show of hands of the Members, or their Representatives, who are personally present and entitled to vote. The Chair will not have a casting vote.

Evidence of resolution

- 61 It is conclusive evidence that a resolution has been passed (regardless of whether there is any proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution) if:
- 61.1 the Chair declares that a resolution has been passed or lost (having regard to the majority required); and
- 61.2 an entry to that effect has been made in the Company's books and signed by the Chair of that, or the next meeting.

Poll vote

- 62 The Chair or any Member present (personally or by Representative, proxy or attorney) may demand a poll before, or on the declaration of the result of, a show of hands. Any person who has demanded a poll may withdraw their demand.
- 63 A poll demanded on any question of adjournment must be taken before any adjournment.
- 64 The poll is to be taken:
- 64.1 in the manner and at the time and place as the Chair of the meeting directs; and
- 64.2 either at once or after an interval or adjournment or otherwise.
- 65 The result of the poll is to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
- 66 If there is a dispute as to the admission or rejection of a vote, then the Chair will finally determine that dispute.
- 67 At a poll, the Chair will not have a casting vote.

Continuing with other business before a Poll

- 68 After a poll has been demanded, the meeting may continue with any business other than the issue on which poll has been demanded.

I General Meetings: appointing a proxy

Eligibility to be proxy

- 69 Any Member may:
- 69.1 appoint a natural person who is a Member, or a Representative, as a proxy to vote on the Member's behalf; and
 - 69.2 may direct the proxy to vote either for or against each or any resolution.

Company receiving notice of proxy

- 70 For an appointment of a proxy to be valid, the Company must receive the document appointing the proxy (and an original, or certified copy, of the power of attorney, if any, under which it is signed):
- 70.1 at least 48 hours before the time for holding the relevant meeting or adjourned meeting or poll; and
 - 70.2 at one of:
 - the Registered Office;
 - a fax number at the Registered Office; or
 - a place, fax number or electronic address specified for such purpose in the notice of meeting.
- 71 An instrument appointing a proxy is valid for any adjournment of the meeting to which it relates — unless it states something to the contrary.

Form of proxy

- 72 An instrument appointing a proxy must be signed by the appointor, or his or her attorney, and must contain the following information:
- 72.1 the Company name;
 - 72.2 the Member's name and address;
 - 72.3 the Member's type of Membership;
 - 72.4 the proxy's name or the name of the office held by the proxy; and
 - 72.5 the meetings at which the appointment may be used.

Proxy's voting instructions

- 73 A document appointing a proxy may specify the way in which the proxy is to vote for a particular resolution. If it does so, then the proxy must vote on the resolution as specified.

Proxy's authority

- 74 A document appointing a proxy will be treated as giving the proxy:
- 74.1 authority to demand, or join in demanding, a poll; and

- 74.2 the power to act generally at the meeting for the person giving the proxy (except to the extent to which the proxy is specifically directed to vote for or against any proposal).

J General Meeting: appointing an attorney

Member appointing an attorney

- 75 Any Member may, by duly executed power of attorney, appoint an attorney to act on the Member's behalf at all, or certain specified, meetings of the Company. If the attorney wishes to appoint a proxy for the Member granting the power of attorney, then the attorney must at the Registered Office (or any other place the Board determines) produce:

- 75.1 the power of attorney for inspection; and 75.2 any evidence the Board requires that it has been properly executed.

Directors appointing an attorney of the Company

- 76 The Directors by resolution may, by power of attorney, appoint any person whether nominated directly or indirectly by the Directors to be an attorney or attorneys of the Company. The appointment:
- 76.1 may be for any purposes and with powers, authorities and discretions (not exceeding those vested in, or exercisable by, the Directors under this Constitution);
76.2 may authorise any attorney to sub-delegate all or any of the powers, authorities and discretions vested in them;
76.3 may be for periods and on conditions as the Directors think fit; and 76.4 may contain provisions for the protection and convenience of persons dealing with any attorney as the Directors think fit.

K General Meeting: voting by attorney or proxy

Validity of vote after death or revocation

- 77 If a person who has appointed a proxy or attorney has either died or revoked the appointment but any notice in writing of the death or revocation has not been received at the Registered Office before the meeting, then a vote given in accordance within the terms of appointment will be valid.

Person who has appointed proxy or attorney may attend meetings

- 78 A person who has appointed a proxy or attorney may attend and take part in a meeting. Doing so does not revoke the appointment — unless the person votes on the resolution to which the appointment applies.

L Directors

Number and qualifications of Directors

- 79 The number of Directors comprising the Board will be at least 3 and, except as otherwise decided by a special resolution of the Members, no more than 9.
- 80 Each Director must be a financial Member or a Representative of a financial Member.

Length of appointment

- 81 Subject to clauses 83, 85, 86 and 87, the Act and to the terms of any agreement between the Company and the Director, a Director holds office until the Director dies or is removed from office.

Election of Directors

- 82 Except where the Company has one member, and without limiting clause 85, Directors will be elected in the following way:
- 82.1 Any two Members may nominate any Member or Representative to serve as a Director.
- 82.2 The nomination of any Member or Representative as a candidate for election as a Director must be:
- in writing and signed by the nominated person and their proposer and seconder; and
 - lodged with the Secretary at least 30 days before the Annual General Meeting at which the election is to take place (or any other scheduled General Meeting).
- 82.3 If:
- (a) the number of Directors (excluding, if the election is to take place at an Annual General Meeting, any Director appointed under 85) comprising the Board is less than the maximum number of Directors permitted under clause 79 (the difference being the Shortfall), then:
- (i) the proposed appointment of each candidate shall be voted upon by the Members at the Annual General Meeting (or, if applicable, the other scheduled General Meeting);
 - (ii) subject to clause 82.3(a)(iii), a candidate will be appointed as a Director if, and only if, the candidate is appointed as a Director by the Company by ordinary resolution;
 - (iii) if, but for this clause 82.3(a)(iii), the number of candidates so appointed as Directors would exceed the Shortfall, then only such number of candidates as is equal to the Shortfall shall be appointed as Directors. The successful candidates shall be determined by the number of votes received by the relevant candidates (with the higher number of votes taking priority) and in the event of a deadlock between any candidates, by the age of the relevant candidates (with an older candidate taking priority over a younger candidate). The decision of the Chair of the Annual General Meeting (or, if applicable, the other scheduled General Meeting) shall be determinative of the matters referred to in this clause 82.3(a)(iii).

If the number of Directors (excluding, if the election is to take place at an Annual General Meeting, any Director appointed under 85) comprising the Board plus the number of directors appointed at the Annual General Meeting (or, if applicable, the other scheduled General Meeting) pursuant to the process set out in clauses 82.3(a)(i), (ii) and (iii) is not enough to meet the required minimum number of Directors under clause 79, then the Board must appoint a Member or Representative as Director (as long as they consent) until there is at least the minimum number of Directors.

- (b) the number of Directors (excluding, if the election is to take place at an Annual General Meeting, any Director appointed under 85) comprising the Board is equal to the maximum number of Directors permitted under clause 79, then the appointment of such candidates shall not be voted upon at the Annual General Meeting (or, if applicable, the other scheduled General Meeting) and the Chair of the Annual General Meeting (or, if applicable, the other scheduled General Meeting) will declare that none of those candidates are elected as Directors.

Where the Company has only one Member

- 83 If the Company has only one Member, that Member can appoint or remove a Director at any time by the Member giving a written notice of the appointment or removal, signed by or on behalf of the Member, to the Company or to the Secretary, and such appointment will take effect on the date specified in the notice or, if no date is specified, on the date on which the notice is received by the Company or the Secretary.

Officers on the Board

- 84 The Directors will, from time to time, elect from among their number a Chair, a Deputy Chair, a Secretary and a Treasurer (one Director may fill more than one position). Subject to this clause 84, each Director so elected will hold office as Chair, Deputy Chair, Secretary or Treasurer (as the case may be) for any period determined by the Directors or, if no such period is determined, until the Directors resolve to remove that Director as Chair, Deputy Chair, Secretary or Treasurer (as the case may be)

A Director who is elected as Chair, Deputy Chair, Secretary or Treasurer (as the case may be) by the Directors under clause 84 may resign as Chair, Deputy Chair, Secretary or Treasurer (as the case may be) by written notice to the Board, in which case that Director will cease to hold office as Chair, Deputy Chair, Secretary or Treasurer (as the case may be) when the Board receives such notice.

Casual vacancies

85 Subject to the maximum number of Directors for the time being fixed under clause 86 not being exceeded, the Board may appoint a person to be a Director either to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the Board That replacement Director holds office until the end of the next Annual General Meeting.

Vacation of office

- 86 The office of a Director will be vacated if the Director:
- 86.1 is a Member, or a Representative of a Member, and they become bankrupt or make any arrangement or composition with their creditors;
 - 86.2 is a Representative of a Member and that Member resigns or is expelled as a Member;
 - 86.3 is removed under clause 83 or 87;
 - 86.4 is a Representative of a Member which is not a natural person, and a winding up order is made in respect of that Member;
 - 86.5 becomes of unsound mind;
 - 86.6 is absent for three consecutive Board Meetings without leave of the Board (unless the Board resolves to the contrary);
 - 86.7 resigns from their Directorship by giving written notice to the Company; or
 - 86.8 ceases to hold office by reason of any order made under the Act.
- 87 Whether or not a Director's appointment was expressed to be for a specified period, the Company by ordinary resolution may remove that Director from office.

First directors

88 The first Directors are the persons set out as Directors in the application to register the Company lodged under section 117 of the Act.

M Powers of the Board

The board controls and directs the company

- 89 The control and direction of the Company and the management of its property and affairs are vested in the Board.
- 90 The Board may exercise all powers of the Company that are not required to be exercised or done by the Company in General Meeting.

Borrowing

91 The Board may raise money in any manner it thinks fit including by borrowing money (whether on the security of the Company's assets or not) and the issuing of a security for any other purpose — so long as this is done to further the Company's objects set out in clause 2.

Investment

92 The Board may invest the Company's money in any manner, and for any period, it thinks fit.

Negotiable instruments

93 Two Directors, or one Director and some other officer authorised by the Board for the purpose, may sign, draw, accept, endorse or otherwise execute (as the case may be) the following documents for and on behalf of the Company: all cheques, promissory notes, drafts, bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments and all receipts for money paid to the Company.

N Proceedings of the Board

General

94 The Board may meet for the dispatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate its meetings as it thinks fit.

95 The Board must meet at least 3 times a year.

Use of technology in Board conferencing

96 The Board may, if it thinks fit, confer by radio, telephone, facsimile, computer, Internet, closed circuit television or other electronic means of audio or audio-visual communication. Any resolution passed using such a system is to be treated as having been passed at a meeting of the Board held on the day and at the time the conference was held — even if the Directors were not present together in one place at the time. This clause does not limit the discretion of the Board to regulate its meetings.

97 The provisions of this Constitution regulating the proceedings of the Board apply so far as they are capable to such conferences.

Notice of meeting

98 At any time, the Board may convene a Board meeting by notice served on each Director. The Secretary is to arrange that notice at the request of the Chair or Deputy Chair.

99 The proceedings of a Board meeting are valid even if:

99.1 the Company accidentally omitted to give notice of a meeting to any Director; or

99.2 any Director did not receive notice of the meeting.

Quorum

100 A quorum for Board meetings is (unless the Board determines otherwise) if the number of Directors:

100.1 is an even number, half of the Board plus one other director; or 100.2 is an odd number, the odd number nearest to, and greater than, half of the number of Directors.

Chair

- 101 The Chair, or in the Chair's absence the Deputy Chair, is to chair every Board meeting.
- 102 If at a Board meeting neither the Chair nor the Deputy Chair is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding that meeting (or if neither is willing to chair), then the Directors present will choose one of their number to chair the meeting.

Voting

- 103 Questions arising at any meeting will be decided by a majority of votes. Each Director present is entitled to one vote. The Chair does not have a casting vote.
- 104 However, the Board may suspend a Director's entitlement to vote if the Director (or the Member for whom the Director is a Representative) owes the Company any amount that is more than 3 months overdue (or such other period as the Board determines).

Delegation by the Board

- 105 Subject to clause 106, the Board may, as it thinks fit, delegate any of its powers to individual Directors or Members or to committees. A committee may consist of the Directors or Members (or both) that the Board thinks fit. Any individual or committee must comply with any Board direction about how to execute the delegated powers.
- 106 The Board may not delegate its power to delegate.
- 107 The meetings and proceedings of any committee will be governed by the provisions of this Constitution that regulate the meetings and proceedings of the Board so far as they apply and so far as the Board has not replaced them.

Defects in appointment

- 108 An act done in good faith by any meeting of the Board, any meeting of any committee formed by the Board or by any person acting as a Director will not be invalidated merely because of:
- 108.1 any defect in the election, appointment or tenure of a Director or person acting on any such committee; or
- 108.2 the disqualification of any of them.

O Board minutes and circulated resolutions

Making Board resolutions

- 109 The Board may make resolutions either:
- 109.1 in a meeting, of which minutes must be kept as set out in clause 110; or
- 109.2 by circulated resolution which must be made and kept as set out in clause 111.

Minutes to be kept

- 110 The Board must arrange for:
- 110.1 proper minutes to be made of the proceedings and resolutions of all meetings of the Company, the Board and committees formed by the Board;
 - 110.2 the minutes to be entered in books kept for that purpose; and
 - 110.3 the minutes to be signed by the Chair of the meeting or by the Chair of the next meeting.

Circulated Resolution General

- 111 If all the Directors have signed a document containing a statement that they are in favour of a resolution set out in the document, then that resolution is to be treated as having been passed as a Circulated Resolution at a meeting of the Board held at the time and date on which the resolution was last signed by a Director. (However, the reference to “all the Directors” in this clause does not include any Director who is not entitled to vote on the Resolution.)
- 112 Any Circulated Resolution may consist of several documents in identical terms, each signed by one or more Directors and must be entered in the relevant book of minutes of the Company.

Evidence of proceedings and resolutions

- 113 A minute or Circulated Resolution that is recorded and signed in accordance with clause 110 or 111 to 112 (as the case may be) is evidence of the proceeding or resolution to which it relates (unless the contrary is proved).

P Accounts

Accounts to be kept

118.1 in that capacity; or
118.2 in any way in the discharge of that person's duties; or
118.3 by reason of or relating to the person's status as an Officer.
119 However, the indemnity in clause 118 does not extend to any Liability from, or against, which the Company is not permitted by the Corporations Act to exempt or indemnify the Officer.

Indemnity for Proceedings

120 Without limiting clause 118, the Company must indemnify every Officer out of the assets of the Company against any Liability incurred by that person in defending proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in respect of any act or thing done by the Officer in that person's capacity as such Officer.

S Distribution of property on winding-up

124 If on the winding-up or dissolution of the Company after all its debts and liabilities have been satisfied there remains any property, then that property must not be paid to or distributed among the Members.

125 If the Company is wound up or its endorsement as a deductible gift recipient is revoked (whichever occurs first), any surplus of the following assets shall be transferred to another organisation with similar objects as the Company, which is charitable at law, to which income tax deductible gifts can be made:
